AI Visibility Audit

How AI assistants talk about dental care in Tijuana – and where you appear

PREPARED FOR

Northstar Dental

northstardental.com · Tijuana

Date: July 11, 2026

Prepared by Answerlit

SAMPLE REPORT

This is a real audit with the identities removed. Every score, count, citation and date is exactly as measured. All business names and their websites have been replaced with pseudonyms – the businesses shown do not exist under these names.

01 Executive summary

23% VISIBILITY of AI answers mention you	5% SHARE OF VOICE of all business mentions are you	#2.6 AVG. POSITION when you are recommended	Northgate Dental #1 COMPETITOR most-recommended business
---	---	--	---

Northstar Dental appears in AI answers about dental work in Tijuana, but not equally across all conversation types. When patients search to compare prices, the clinic gets mentioned—appearing in 30% of price-focused answers. But when patients ask who to trust or look for recommendations, Northstar Dental is cited far less often: 20% visibility on both discovery and trust questions, while Northgate Dental dominates the discovery conversation with 9 mentions versus Northstar Dental's 2. This asymmetry matters because price shoppers are later-stage decision makers; the discovery and trust conversations are where patients first hear a clinic's name.

- Northstar Dental exists in all three measured conversation types but leads in none. The clinic appears in price answers (3 mentions), discovery answers (2 mentions), and trust answers (2 mentions), while Northgate Dental owns discovery with 9 mentions, and Harborview Dental leads on trust with 5 mentions.
- Visibility swings sharply between AI engines: Gemini shows 44% visibility for Northstar Dental, while OpenAI shows 0%. Perplexity shows 33% and Anthropic 17%, meaning the clinic's presence is inconsistent depending on which AI a patient uses.
- Competitor editorials function as neutral sources in trust answers. Brightwater Dental blog posts are cited by AI—appearing 4 times in discovery answers; Silverline Dental and Cordova Dental blog posts appear 4 times and 3 times respectively in trust-focused answers—even though they are marketing content published by clinics themselves.
- Your price-focused pages drive almost all your citations. Nine of your 12 citations come from pages about pricing and implant costs; your one trust-related citation comes from a single page addressing safety concerns in Tijuana.

02 What patients and travelers are asking

We asked AI assistants 3 questions that real customers ask about dental care in Tijuana, grouped by what the customer is trying to do. Each question was asked 2 times per AI assistant, because AI answers vary between attempts.

Discovery – Finding options: “what are the best...”

- “What are the best dental clinics in Tijuana for Stonebridge Dental?”

Trust & safety – Safety, accreditation, and reviews

- “Is it safe to get dental work in Tijuana? Which clinics are accredited and have US-trained dentists?”

Price – Costs and transparent pricing

- “How much does All-on-4 cost in Tijuana and which reputable clinic has transparent pricing?”

03 Where you appear (and where you don't)

Your visibility by conversation type

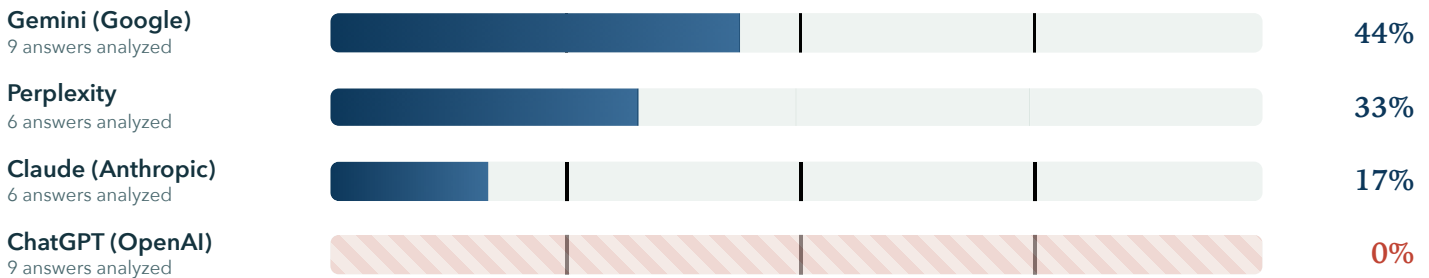

The single most important finding of this audit: AI does not see you as one business – it sees you conversation by conversation. You can dominate one type of question and not exist in another.

Not measured: This audit ran no questions of this type; no claim is made about it.

The same questions, four different answers: visibility by AI assistant

Each AI assistant assembles its answers from its own sources – so the same business can be recommended constantly by one assistant and never appear in another. This is where that divergence shows.

Gemini (Google) mentions you in 44% of its answers; ChatGPT (OpenAI) in 0%. These are different battles, fought over different sources.

05 The sources behind the answers

AI assistants do not invent recommendations – they assemble them from web sources. Across this audit's answers we captured 314 citations pointing to 81 distinct domains. Whoever controls these documents controls the answers. The top 3 domains hold 18% of all citations.

🚩 Red flag: competitor content posing as neutral

These “articles” and rankings are published by your competitors on their own websites – and the AI treats them as neutral sources. When an AI cites a competitor’s “Top clinics” article, that competitor is effectively writing the answer.

Invisible players competing for the AI's attention

These businesses were never recommended in any answer – but the AI is reading their websites while composing its answers. They rank for the AI's research even though they don't (yet) win the recommendation. They are one good page away from entering the answers – the same move available to you.

06 What AI gets wrong about you

AI answers made the following factual claims about your business. Wrong or outdated claims – especially prices – get repeated to every customer who asks.

These claims have not yet been fact-checked by you. They are listed for review, not verified as right or wrong. Run the review step to mark each claim true, false, or outdated.

07 How stable are these answers?

We asked every question 3 times per AI assistant, because AI answers are not fixed – the same question can produce a different recommendation minutes later.

Across repeated asks, the #1 recommendation matched only 67% of the time. In 8 of 12 repeated questions, the top recommendation changed between attempts.

This is normal: these assistants re-search the web on every question and weigh sources slightly differently each time. It also means visibility is not won once – it moves.

AI ASSISTANT	SAME #1 ACROSS REPEATS
Perplexity	67%
ChatGPT (OpenAI)	67%
Gemini (Google)	67%
Claude (Anthropic)	67%

A single snapshot shows where you stand today. Whether you hold or lose ground only shows up by re-measuring over time.

08 Action plan

Every item below traces to a specific finding in this audit – a source the AI reads, a claim it repeats, or a conversation you are absent from.

Action Plan: Northstar Dental AI Visibility Audit

- Audit and publish trust-focused content to match competitor positioning in safety and reliability conversations – Northstar Dental is mentioned 2 times in trust answers versus Harborview Dental with 5 mentions in the same intent. While your price page <https://northstardental.com/es-seguro-ir-a-tijuana-por-dientes-2026/> is cited once in trust, competitors dominate safety topics. Create 2-3 dedicated trust pages addressing common safety and reliability questions (e.g., "Are dentists in Tijuana certified?", "Is it safe to travel for Stonebridge Dental?") structured like your existing price pages and optimized for AI discovery in trust answers.
- List or verify your profile on dentaldepartures.com, bookimed.com, and whatclinic.com – These three aggregators rank in the top 5 source domains. You are currently cited 12 times on your own domain versus competitors' presence on these platforms (Lakeview Dental's lakeviewdental.com domain is cited 16 times, Northgate Dental's northgatedental.com domain is cited 14 times). Ensure your clinic is listed, complete, and current on all three; confirm your profile includes pricing, service offerings, and patient reviews where available.
- Establish and monitor a Reddit presence for discovery and trust conversations – Reddit is a top-5 source domain with 15 citations across AI answers. Identify or create a subreddit-appropriate channel (e.g., r/dentistry, r/Tijuana, r/medicaturismmx) to answer patient questions about dental tourism safety, clinic selection, and pricing in a neutral, helpful voice aligned with your trust and discovery messaging.
- Review and confirm all 22 unreviewed price claims attributed to your clinic before they propagate further – Claims about All-on-4 pricing ($8,000-$12,000 per arch, base packages at $5,499 USD) and a "Price Match Guarantee policy" are currently unreviewed. AI systems repeat what they find on your site and in sources; if any of these claims are inaccurate or outdated, correct them on your pages (especially <https://northstardental.com/all-on-4-en-tijuana-2025-2026-precio-real-clinicas/>, your highest-cited page at 3 citations) immediately to prevent repeated misquotation across all four AI engines.
- Rebuild discovery visibility by creating a "best clinics in Tijuana" comparison page – Northgate Dental leads discovery intent with 9 mentions versus your 2 mentions. Their homepage and service pages (northgatedental.com/affordable-Stonebridge-Dental-in-tijuana/, full-mouth-Stonebridge-Dental-in-tijuana) are cited in discovery answers. Publish a structured page on northstardental.com that directly addresses "best dental clinics in Tijuana" or "Kingsley Dental clinic comparison," mirroring the depth and service breadth of competitor discovery pages, to recapture this intent gap.
- Target OpenAI (ChatGPT) separately with verified structured data on your site – You have 0% visibility in OpenAI across 9 answers analyzed, while Perplexity shows 33% and Gemini shows 44%. This suggests OpenAI's crawl or index of your site may be incomplete or your content is not optimized for its retrieval patterns. Audit your site's technical SEO (sitemap, robots.txt, schema markup for Organization, LocalBusiness, and FAQPage), ensure all pages are indexable, and confirm your domain is in Bing Webmaster Tools (which feeds OpenAI). Resubmit your sitemap to ensure coverage.
- Develop your own trust content on your domain to counter competitor editorials – Silverline Dental and Cordova Dental control 7 citations combined via their own blog posts (e.g., "is it safe to travel to Tijuana for dental treatments"). Rather than pitch these sites, publish equivalent high-quality trust content on northstardental.com (e.g., "Is Tijuana safe for dental tourism?" "How to choose a certified dentist in Mexico") to provide AI systems with your own authoritative source on these questions, reducing AI reliance on competitor narratives.
- Monitor and document AI answer volatility to identify seasonal or query-variation patterns – Top-pick agreement is 67% and your top competitor changed across 8 of 12 repeated question groups, indicating instability in which clinics are cited. Track which queries and intents drive your 7 mentions versus competitors' 13 to identify which question phrasings or seasons favor you, then optimize discovery and price pages to capture high-variance queries where your position is strong.

Questions asked

Question mix: discovery ×1, trust & safety ×1, price ×1. Each question was asked 2 times per assistant. Questions were asked in English.

All answers were collected between July 11, 2026 and July 11, 2026.

Answers were parsed into structured data by a separate model (claude-haiku-4-5); every mention, quote, and citation in this report traces to a stored answer.

4 citations could not be resolved to a final URL and are excluded from source attribution.

Quotes are verbatim from AI answers and remain in their original language.

AI answers are probabilistic and change over time. This report is a measured snapshot of the collection dates above, not a guarantee of what any assistant will say tomorrow. Sample sizes are small by design (audits measure, they do not poll). Percentages describe the analyzed answers only.
